

Malvern Hills Community News

September 2013

Issue 5

The annual picnic was a huge success with almost 70 in attendance. We enjoyed getting to know our new neighbors and sharing the delicious covered dish dinner. What fun to see young and old come together in such a relaxed community environment. Malvern Hills Park was the perfect setting for this event and we will continue to hold the picnic there on the Sunday following Labor Day. Thanks to all who participated.

SAVE THE DATE for the Christmas Party: Andrea and Russ Davis invite the community to their home at 137 Wendover Road on Sunday, December 8 for a drop-in Christmas gathering from 3:00 pm-5:00 pm. Put this important event on your calendar and help us celebrate the holiday season together.

The Neighborhood Advisory Committee (NAC) is sponsoring a Festival of Neighborhoods celebration on Sunday, October 27 at the Sherrill Center on the UNC-A campus from 3:00 pm-5:00 pm. Our President Elaine serves on this committee.

Asheville City Council established NAC to help strengthen the bonds of community and improve the quality of life for residents. The purpose of the Festival is to honor and recognize successful neighborhood collaborations and the leaders who make them possible. Dr. John Wood, a noted anthropologist, will be the keynote speaker. Each community is asked to develop a tri-fold exhibit to showcase the neighborhood. Our Vice President Russ is designing the Malvern Hills display. There will be an opportunity to network with other neighborhood organization members and refreshments will be provided. Our Board of Directors agreed to participate in this event and as such, this will be in lieu of a fall meeting. If you are interested in attending, please contact Elaine Poovey.

The 2013 Community Directory is now available. Send your $5.00 club dues to Treasurer Dorland Winkler at 77 Cranford Road and your directory will be delivered. Make your check payable to the Malvern Hills Community Club.
